Keynote Presentation by

Jewels Diamond Taylor

Taylor's high-impact keynotes and workshops are empowering, effective, engaging, informative and memorable. Taylor is a thought leader and an expert in motivating her clients and audiences to experience a higher level of success and results. She is an awakening force because her presentations provide insights to understand, observe and transcend limiting behavior patterns. In 1985 Jewel kicked the glass ceiling and broke ground as one of the first female African American motivational speakers. Men and women are encouraged to grow beyond their obstacles, procrastination, past adversity, addictions and fears.

This dynamic Christian leader, voice and vessel inspire listeners to tap into their strengths, passion, purpose, resources and faith to overcome adversity and grow in success.

She is a popular author of:

- Sisterfriends
- Success Gems
- You Are Too Blessed to Be Stressed
- You Deserve More: Desperation is a Terrible Perfume to Wear
- The Main Thing is to KEEP The Main Thing...The Main Thing

This multi-faceted speaker has spoken in London, Brazil, Cancun, St. Kitts, Jamaica, St. Croix, the Bahamas, the U. S. Pentagon, U. S. Secret Service, NASA Research Center, colleges, workplace training and a very popular women's ministry conference and retreat speaker. Taylor was on tour for 12 years as a speaker for the African American Women on Tour Conferences.

Her community outreach, compassion and words of wisdom are shared with women's shelters, women in recovery, young teens at risk and for the past three years she has been invited to speak with grieving families for the MADD Chapter in Riverside (Mothers Against Drunk Drivers).

This is an anointed woman speaks to the relevant themes of life with a fresh voice and perspective blending wisdom, wit, depth and compassion for our human struggle to achieve success and balanced living. Jewel's pearls of wisdom and dynamic approach help individuals and organizations identify their communication and behavioral styles. Taylor's message inspires her audience to learn how to cope, survive and thrive in this ever changing world allowing them to add value to their family, community and the organization they serve.

Taylor received her education in Psychology from California State University Dominguez Hills. Since 1985 her passion, excellence and messages for successful living have stimulated the minds, hearts, and actions of men, women and youth to cope with adversity and achieve success in their personal, professional and spiritual lives. She is the founder of the Women on the Grow and Women's Ministry Coordinator at the Dwelling Place Church in Inglewood, CA.

This Washington D. C. native, born to a gemologist, resides in southern California. She is a wife and mother to two young adult sons.
